THE SOUTH CAROLINA REVIEW is published in fall and spring by the College of Liberal Arts at Clemson University. It was founded by Furman University, where it was published from November, 1968, until June, 1973.

The Fall, 1983, issue is partially supported by grants from the National Endowment for the Arts and the Coordinating Council of Literary Magazines.

THE SOUTH CAROLINA REVIEW is indexed in Index of American Periodical Verse, American Humanities Index, and Index to Periodical Fiction.

The editors solicit manuscripts of all kinds: essays, scholarly articles, criticism, poetry, and stories. Manuscripts should be addressed to The Editors, THE SOUTH CAROLINA REVIEW, Department of English, Clemson University, Clemson, S.C. 29631. They should be accompanied by return postage, and articles should conform to the MLA Style Sheet. Unsolicited manuscripts are not read during June, July, and August.

Subscriptions in the USA, Mexico, and Canada are $5.00 a year, $9.00 for two years. Overseas subscriptions are $5.50 a year, $10.00 for two years. A limited number of back issues are available for $3.00 each.

Entered as fourth-class mail at Clemson, S.C. 29631.

The papers by Professors Hill, Greiner, Sullivan, and Williams were originally prepared to be read at a special session, "The Aesthetics of Accessibility," at the Philological Association of the Carolinas, at The Citadel, 25 March 1983. We thank those scholars for allowing us to publish their papers here.
