THE SOUTH CAROLINA REVIEW is published in the fall and spring by the College of Liberal Arts at Clemson University. It was founded by Furman University, where it was published from November 1968 until June 1973.

This special issue is funded in part by the South Carolina Arts Commission.

THE SOUTH CAROLINA REVIEW is indexed in Index of American Periodical Verse, American Humanities Index and Index to Periodical Fiction.

The editors solicit manuscripts of all kinds: essays, scholarly articles, criticism, poetry, and stories. Manuscripts should be addressed to The Editors, THE SOUTH CAROLINA REVIEW, Department of English, Clemson University, Clemson, SC 29634-1503. They should be accompanied by return postage, and should conform to the revised MLA format. Unsolicited manuscripts are not read during June, July, and August. Please allow two months for our decision, and note that we cannot acknowledge receipt of manuscripts.

Subscriptions in the USA, Canada, and Mexico are $5 a year, $9 for two years. Overseas subscriptions are $5.50 a year, $10 for two years. A limited number of back issues are available for $5 each.

Entered as fourth-class mail at Clemson, SC 29634-1503.

The picture on page 13, of Harriet Monroe and Professor Francis, and the pictures of Robert Frost on pages 14 and 15, appear courtesy of Lesley Lee Francis, the grand-daughter of Robert Frost.

With the help of a grant from the South Carolina Arts Commission and with a history of publishing Frost scholarship, the SOUTH CAROLINA REVIEW is offering to its subscribers and to members of the Robert Frost Society this special issue on the poetry of Frost. We hope that with the cooperation of the Frost Society we will be able to offer a yearly issue, since there is currently no periodical devoted to the study of this important American poet. A Frost Newsletter is included for members of the Robert Frost Society.
